

TEACHING FOR TRANSFORMATION

This year our school theme is 'Pursuing Peculiar - Made to be More'.

Peculiar [pi-kyool-yer]: 1. extraordinary, exceptional; 2. belonging exclusively to some person, group, or thing.

June Focus: You!

And all these, though commended through their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had provided something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

Hebrews 11: 39-40

We have arrived at the last month of the school year and what a year it has been! Through our theme this year, students have studied how God used imperfect people like Noah, Moses, Paul, and Timothy to live out His story. Not only did He use them but He very intentionally CHOSE them to tell His story of redemption. This month, the focus in our theme shifts from studying recorded Biblical people to a study of one very specific New Testament 'character' - each individual student. We hope that as the year has progressed that students have realized that they do not need to be perfect to be VIPs in God's story. In fact, He usually uses our mistakes, short-comings, and messiness to further His kingdom and bring Himself glory. This month and throughout this summer we encourage you to ask you children what they are going to do to continue being peculiar even after the school year is done. How are they going to set themselves apart as different, special, and belonging solely to our Lord and Savior?

Biblical Throughlines

Over the last two years we have been studying the Biblical Throughlines that our school practices. Although our theme does not focus on the Throughlines this year, it doesn't mean that they aren't happening in our classrooms! If you would like to re-familiarize yourself with Throughlines, please feel free to use the family devotional that we created two years ago by clicking on the link below!
