Fruit of the Spirit Focus: Faithfulness

This month's reflection on faithfulness, below, is an excerpt taken from My Utmost For His Highest by Oswald Chambers. To read the rest, please click HERE.

Being faithful to Jesus Christ is the most difficult thing we try to do today. We will be faithful to our work, to serving others, or to anything else; just don't ask us to be faithful to Jesus Christ. Many Christians become very impatient when we talk about faithfulness to Jesus. Our Lord is dethroned more deliberately by Christian workers than by the world. We treat God as if He were a machine designed only to bless us, and we think of Jesus as just another one of the workers.

The goal of faithfulness is not that we will do work for God, but that He will be free to do His work through us. God calls us to His service and places tremendous responsibilities on us. He expects no complaining on our part and offers no explanation on His part. God wants to use us as He used His own Son.

Biblical Throughlines

Over the last several years we have been studying the Biblical Throughlines that our school practices. Although our theme does not focus on the Throughlines this year, it doesn't mean that they aren't happening in our classrooms! If you would like to re-familiarize yourself with Throughlines, please feel free to use the family devotional that we created several years ago by clicking on the link below!

SPOTLIGHT: TCS Serves Day

On Friday, February 16th the students of Trinity Christian School had the privilege of going out and practicing being the hands and feet of Jesus as part of our first TCS Serves Day. Every class within the school considered the needs that they saw within our various communities and did something to help 'Address the Mess'. We had classes working in homeless shelters, food kitchens, visiting with the elderly, thanking the various heroes within our Midnapore community, and buying books and writing notes of encouragement to young readers who may not be able to buy new books themselves, just to name a few. It was an incredible day that held great impact for our students, staff, and volunteers!
