

Be still, and know that I am God. Psalm 46: 10a

Still.

God Leads Me

Growing up, my favourite hymn was always He Leadeth Me. One of the stanzas include the lyrics, "Sometimes mid scenes of deepest gloom/Sometimes where Eden's bowers bloom/By waters still, over troubled sea/Still 'tis His hand that leadeth me." I remember finding great comfort in these lyrics even as a child. This December and as we finish out 2020, I would venture a guess that for many of us we are going through the 'scenes of deepest gloom' and 'troubled waters' that the old hymn says will come. While there are still days ahead of us that are unknown and challenging, I find great relief (and dare I say, joy) in that I'm not walking this road alone. Instead, I have a God who sent His Son and Spirit down to Earth to literally trod this journey with me.

This month's focus: God leads me

And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your Teacher will not hide himself anymore, but your eyes shall see your Teacher. And your ears shall hear a word behind you saying, "This is the way, walk in it," when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left.

Isaiah 30:20-21

Christmas Hampers

This year, we will be creating gift baskets of treats and gift cards for those that need them! Please consider donating to this important annual ministry of TCS.

Homeroom teachers are accepting change, cash, and cheques (made out to Trinity Christian School). If you would prefer to donate via an email transfer, please do so to Jody Vriend

(jody.vriend@pallisersd.ab.ca). In the note, please write Christmas Hampers. Please note that since we are collecting funds in lieu of food, there will be NO tax receipts issued. The deadline for money to be into homeroom teachers is Friday, December 11
