

Blessed.

Blessed for God's purpose. Blessed by God's promise.

“Hungry, thirsty people work hard, urgently, to gain food. To hunger and thirst for righteousness, then, means we should urgently pursue righteousness.”

-Daniel Doriani (Table Talk Magazine 2017)

God is after our hearts and our desires. Even though it is best for us to live rightly, He didn't create us to be robots without choice. We need to both desire and allow God to shape us. God promises that if we seek Him first, He will fulfill us.

And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work. 2 Corinthians 9:8

This month's focus:

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness.

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.”

Matthew 5:6

“But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

Matthew 6:33

Do you want to learn more related to our monthly theme?

If so, click on the resources below:

- Blessed are Those Who Hunger and Thirst for Righteousness Article by Daniel Doriani
- Enjoy this worship song The Kingdom is Yours by The Common Hymnal
- Learn How to Stay Spiritually Hungry Sermon by Rick Warren
- Kids of Integrity: Righteousness
- Teach Your Child to Have Devotions Article by Ryan Higginbottom